THURSDAY, SEPT. 30, 1897.

Anderson is to have a daily paper.

According to Governor Ellerbe today is the last is which the dispensary constables will have to work.

The bakers problem: Shall the loaf be lessened or the price raised? (Any way, the bread should rise.)

The State fair will be held in Columbia from Nov. 8th to 12th, inclusive, and it promises to be one of the most elaborately arranged State fairs that has ever been held. The railroads will all sell round trip tickets at a reduced price, and every inducement will be offered visitors.

In Nebraska the two gentlemen whose names head the republican and democratic state tickets are next door neighbors, wherefore, when the campaign opens up we may expect to hear from eminent authority on the villainies of a man who throws his ashes in the alley and elsewhere than behind his own lot.

Senator Bacon, of Georgia, "hit the nail on the head" when he said in a signed interview in the New York Herald, "the appointment of colored men to office in the South will certainly lead to race antagonisms and estrangements which would otherwise not exist. Such appointments are of small benefit to the few negroes thus appointed, and are of very great injury to the masses of the negroes in the ill feeling engendered between them and the whites, upon whose friendship and good will they are wholly dependent."

A Mr. T. A. Jackson, of Georgia, claims to have a new variety of cotton. The stalks are from eight to ten feet tall, and the yield is from two four bales per acre.
The cotton seems to be an entirely new variety. It is limbless and the bolls grow close to the stalk from the ground to the top. Expects who have examined it say that in texture it is equal to the sea island cotton, and when it is generally grown, that is, when enough is planted to make it an object, the price will be much more than that of the ordinary cotton.

Mr. Jackson's address is Box 215, Atlanta, Ga. It would be well for our Williamsburg farmers to experiment with this cotton.

Governor Ellerbe has issued a proclamation removing the metropolitan police from the city of Charleston. Today is the last day of the infliction upon the city and there is a great rejoicing as a consequence.

We believe that Gov. Ellerbe's decision in the matter will meet with the approval of all good men throughout the State. The metropolitan police did not enforce the law in Charleston any better than the regular city police, and the council was without any authority whatever. We repeat it: Governor Ellerbe's action in the matter, though tardy, will meet with the approval of all good men throughout the State.

Here is a piece of advice from the Greenville. ew to farmers:

A number of our contemporaries are gravely debating the question of selling or holding cotton.
It is a subject that they know nothing about. No newspaper ever knows when it is judicious to sell cotton and when it is more profitable to hold it.

The man who markets his cotton as quickly as he can after he gets it out of the field and ginned saves insurance and interest. The man who holds his cotton speculates.
Speculation is always costly. As a general rule it is the part of common sense for a farmer to convert his cotton into cash as soon as practicable. What cotton will be worth a few months hence is guess work.

The number of newspapers published in the world is estimated at about 50,000, of which about 21,- 000 are published in the United States and Canada. And yet some editors write as though they think there are none to equal them.
As Brother Shaver, of the Daltor, Ga., Argus, well says: "Don't be carried away with the idea that you are the smallest man in town, and the biggest man in the State." A sage once remarked that "only the wise can profit by the experience of others, a fool has to find out for himself what fire is."

"My boy came home from school one day with his hand badly lacerated and bleeding, and suffering great pain," says Mr. E. J. Schall with Meyers Bros' Drug Co., St Louis, Mo. "I dressed the wound and applied Chamberlain's Pain Balm freely. All pain ceased, and in a remarkably short time the wound healed without leaving a scar. For wounds, sprains, swell-ings and rheumatism I know of no medicine or prescription equal to it. I consider it a household necessity." The 25 and 50 cent sizes for sale by Dr. Wallace.

The queerest trade yet heard of was made in Charlotte, N. C., according to the News, between a sewing machine agent and undertaker. The agent bartered the undertaker for a trade. The undertaker told him he had nothing to swap except coffins. The agent proposed that he swap a coffin for a sewing machine, and the trade was then consummated.

The young man who got the coffin has something of an elephant on his hand as he does not expect to have any personal use for some years to come. But he has about concluded to settle the matter by raffling the coffin off.

The country is now tiptoeing in breathless interest to hear Col.
Thomas B. Reed tell all about dollar wheat. The colonel will doubtless place the credit therefor upon the mistiff statesmanship of a certain "intrepid and unmoved" presiding officer, with a pendant for counting quorums.

Owing to over-crowding and bad ventilation the air of the schoolroom is often close and impure, and teachers and pupils frequently suffer from lung throat troubles. To all such we would say, try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. For coughs, colds, weak lungs and bronchial troubles no other remedy can compare with it. Says A. C. Freed, superintendent of schools, Prairie Depot Ohio: "Having some knowledge of the efficacy of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, I have no hesitancy in recommending it to all who suffer from cough, lung troubles, etc." For sale by Dr. W. L. Wallace.

Speaking of the president of France, the Paris correspondent of London Truth says: "What country but France could produce a journeyman tanner capable of playing all but regal part as well?" Grant was a tanner, and not a first class one either. But he was one of the world's greatest soldiers. While he was not best president the country has had he was as good as the average. Compared with Grant, Faure was as a toy pistol to a Krupp gun, and Faure is a good fellow at that.

How To Find Out.

Fill a bottle or common glass with urine and let it stand twenty four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys. When urine stains linen it is positive evidence of kidney trouble. Too frequent desire to urinate or pain in the back, is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

WHAT TO DO.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr.
Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy fulfills every wish in relieving pain in the back kidneys, liver, bladder and evers part of the urinary passageway. It corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to get up many times during the night to urinate. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized.
It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best.
Sold by druggist, price fifty cents and one dollar. You may have a sample bottle and pamphlet both sent free by mail. Mention The County Record and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. The proprietors of this paper guarantee the genuineness of this offer.
